Stater Bros. Markets Extends Hourly Employees $2/hr. Wage Incentive

Wage incentive recognizes workers' extra efforts in meeting community needs

San Bernardino, California (April 10, 2020) – During these extraordinary times, all members of the Stater Bros. “Family” have stepped up to continue providing essential services to our local communities. Stater Bros. Markets values all of its employees and as a reward for their tireless work and extra effort, Stater Bros. Markets is proud to extend the $2/hr. wage incentive for all hours worked for all of the company’s hourly employees that work in the stores, distribution, transportation, corporate offices, and construction. This incentive is extended through Sunday, May 3, 2020.

“The spirit of the Stater Bros. ‘Family’ has always been to do the right thing, for the right reason,” said Stater Bros. CEO Pete Van Helden. “Our employees remain committed to helping our community during this difficult period. Many continue to work long hours to ensure the service to our customers remains uninterrupted. We are proud of our team and appreciate their extraordinary efforts in supporting our customers and communities,” Van Helden concluded.

Stater Bros. Markets is currently operating daily from 7:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., with 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 a.m. dedicated exclusively for senior shoppers.
