

INFECTIOUS DISEASE TRAINING FOR UFCW PHARMACY TECHNICIANS

- Do you know what your employer is supposed to be doing to keep you safe?
- Do you know how the tridemic may affect you?
- Do you want to talk to your co-workers and union reps about health and safety?

Join us for an OSHA sponsored remote interactive workshop on infectious disease in the workplace including COVID-19, RSV, and the flu. Through games and discussions, we'll cover the latest trends with these diseases, how to identify problems and come up with solutions, your rights at work, and how to take action for a safer workplace. Upon completion, you will receive a certificate from UC Berkeley's Labor Occupational Health Program.
